Lockers are welded and riveted in construction. Doors are rebated within the locker frame for additional security. Semi concealed hinges are welded to the door and riveted to the frame, allowing easy replacement of damaged doors. Selected doors are reinforced with a profiled steel section for added strength. The locker carcass benefits from nesting holes on all sides to fasten adjacent lockers to form banks or runs of lockers.

Top and bottom plinths are vented with air circulation holes. Manufactured with quality CR4 steel and Abbeysteel™ sustainable sourced steel. Components are polyester powder coated with an anti-bacterial additive - elite Guard prior to assembly to ensure all surfaces are protected. A selection of lock options available.
